

Engadine Gourmet Restaurant GuardaVal

— TAVOLATA ALPINA

A term whose meaning awakens joy in me ...

What better way to bring people together than with a shared meal? Everyone sits at a table, passing bowls and plates to each other, sharing different starters, the best meat and fine sweets. But not only that: they share their time, glances, a laugh and great conversations. At a tavolata, everything happens automatically.

The most original of all forms of eating, namely in community, is something I would like to bring back to life. Enjoy a colourful mix of our changing dishes together with friends, family or strangers who share your passion for pleasure. At our Tavolata!

Choose the menu in two, three or four courses and experience a completely new yet old way of enjoying our cuisine.

I wish you much pleasure, an unforgettable evening and of course bun appetit!
